

Curriculum vitae of Alexander SOREL, Senior Adviser to the Executive Director

Alexander Sorel joined the European Asylum Support Office (EASO) in Malta in February 2017. He is the Senior Advisor to the Executive Director dealing with policy and political matters, as well as all external stakeholders (European Commission, Council of the EU, European Parliament, Agencies, International Organisations).

Before that he was the asylum counsellor at the Dutch Permanent Representation to the EU in Brussels for 6 years, including heading the asylum and migration team during the migration crisis during the 2016 Dutch Presidency of the Council of the European Union. In the preceding 20 years he worked for the Dutch government on international and EU asylum and refugee policy matters.

He studied constitutional law with an extra international law specialisation at Leiden University in the Netherlands.

