

Curriculum vitae of Mikael RIBBENVIK CASSAR, Deputy Executive Director of the European Union Agency for Asylum (EUAA).

Mikael Ribbenvik Cassar holds a Master of Laws (LLM) from University of Lund, Sweden, and has 25 years of experience in the field of human rights and migration.

Mr Ribbenvik Cassar served as Director for Legal Affairs of the Swedish Migration Agency (SMA) between 2008 and 2013 responsible for internal jurisprudence. From 2013 to 2016 he was Director of Operations and Deputy Director General responsible for managing and improving standards of performance within the operation of the SMA. He served as acting Director General of the SMA September 2016-May 2017 and Director General from 2017 - 2023.

Mikael Ribbenvik Cassar was also a member of the Management Board of EUAA, representing Sweden since 2013 and served as deputy Chairperson of the Board since 2019. He became the Chair of the Management Board in 2021 until 2023.

