II. Introduction and background

The European Union Agency for Asylum (EUAA) and the competent authority on refugee protection in Turkey, the Presidency of Migration Management (PMM, formerly the Directorate General for Migration Management), have worked in partnership with EU+ countries to exchange best practices on international protection since 2014. The partnership began with a series of ad hoc technical exchanges, the successful outcomes of which led to a broadened scope of commitment in 2017 with the adoption of a pilot Roadmap for Cooperation (2017-2018). This was followed by two subsequent roadmaps covering the periods 2018-2019 and 2019-2021. With the present Roadmap for Cooperation, the EUAA and the PMM are renewing their commitment to enhance the protection space for applicants for international protection in Turkey by strengthening its national asylum and reception systems in line with the standards set out in the Common European Asylum System (CEAS). The partnership is informed by the combined expertise of the EUAA, the PMM, and collaborating EU+ countries. It is delivered in close consultation with the European Commission and the Delegation of the European Union (to Turkey) (EU-DEL), in coordination with the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR), the International Organization for Migration (IOM), the International Centre for Migration Policy Development (ICMPD), and the project staff of EU Member States engaged bilaterally with the PMM on exchanges of best practices.

The Roadmap will be complemented by a mutually agreed annual implementation plan to ensure that technical exchanges take place in a timely manner. The EUAA and the PMM will continue to meet commitments and timelines under the present Roadmap with due respect for, and subject to, the resources invested and available to both parties. Reasonable flexibility will be extended to allow for changes in circumstance, not least those associated with restrictions related to the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic, including the need to alternate, as appropriate and agreed, between in-person and remote meetings to ensure the safety and well-being of staff members.

III. Methodology

a. Needs assessment and rationale for the intervention

The 2022-2023 Roadmap is the outcome of a comprehensive needs assessment undertaken in tandem with programme implementation in 2021. The needs were identified jointly by the EUAA and the PMM in consultation with counterparts from the European Commission, EU-DEL, UNHCR, IOM, ICMPD, the Council of Europe, and specialised non-governmental organisations and academic practitioners. All activities are drafted using a rights-based approach to promote the capacity of the PMM and its provincial directorates to meet international obligations relating to the protection of applicants for international protection in Turkey. The 2022-2023 Roadmap benefits from monitoring and evaluation insights generated through the mid-term review of the 2019-2021 Roadmap for Cooperation.

The roadmaps identify priority areas where the EUAA capacity development support to the national authorities has an added value and contributes towards protection-sensitive migration management as well as to the Accession Process through support for the alignment of the Turkish asylum and reception systems with the CEAS.

Individual EU+ countries are invited to take ownership of select deliverables under this Roadmap with a view to forge deeper bilateral ties between EU+ competent authorities and the PMM and establish informal peer-to-peer networks that contribute to the fulfilment of the Roadmap's objectives (note for example the commitments by the Netherlands under output 7.1.) The intervention logic will be continuously amended to reflect such national commitments. The Roadmap will also be amended as necessary where warranted by external circumstances and in the interest of furthering quality programming outcomes.

b. Monitoring and evaluation

The EUAA-PMM Roadmap for Cooperation will be informed by a dedicated monitoring and evaluation framework to monitor the progress of implementation, evaluate the quality of outcomes, and inform the appropriateness of corrective actions. A mid-term review, tentatively scheduled for December 2022, will provide an opportunity for the EUAA and the PMM to review the coordination structure between the EUAA and the PMM and the quality and timeliness of implementation. The latter part of the implementation period will benefit from a final evaluation report, the exact terms of reference of which will be agreed between the EUAA and the PMM. Subject to agreement, the final evaluation will take place in parallel to a needs assessment exercise to help inform the relevance for a continued EUAA-PMM partnership beyond the timeline of the present Roadmap.

IV. General pre-conditions and assumptions

- o All relevant stakeholders from both the EUAA and the PMM are committed to participating actively in the agreed activities in line with the mutually agreed timeline;
- o The PMM and the EUAA financial and human resources are available for effective and timely implementation;
- o The EUAA and the PMM maintain a constructive two-way communication at technical level;

- o The EUAA and the PMM are willing to change/adapt the scope and content of the Roadmap to reflect external risks or circumstances.

V. Summary

Based on the Mid-Term Review of the 2019-2021 Roadmap for Cooperation, the November 2021 Prioritised Needs Assessment, and with commitment secured from the EUAA and the PMM, the following high-level outcomes will be pursued:

- I) Contributing to the strengthening of the asylum-related legislation, institutions and systems, in line with the CEAS and EU standards;
- II) Contributing to effective asylum procedures in line with the CEAS;
- III) Contributing to an effective reception system.

The Roadmap will be implemented for a period of 24 months between 1 January 2022 and 31 December 2023.

Impact Enhanced protection space for applicants for international protection in Turkey

High-level Outcome I

Contributing to the strengthening of the asylum related legislation, institutions and systems, in line with the CEAS and EU standards

Outcome 1 A networked and learning organisation

Output 1.1 The PMM enjoys improved access to EUAA and EU+ protection standards and practices

Outcome 2 An organisation that builds staff competencies in line with needs

Output 2.1 PMM capacity to develop and participate in international projects is enhanced

Output 2.2 The PMM meets staff learning needs in a sustainable way

Output 2.3 PMM staff members have access to the EUAA Training Curriculum

Outcome 3 An organisation that embraces digital transformation to accelerate enhanced protection outcomes

Output 3.1 Digital transformation opportunities are identified

Outcome 4 An organisation that responds to large-scale cross-border movements in a protection sensitive manner

Output 4.1 PMM capacity to respond to large-scale cross-border movements is improved

High-level Outcome II

Contributing to effective asylum procedures in line with the CEAS

Outcome 5 An asylum process that leads to timely and correct decisions

Output 5.1 Decisions are informed by relevant and up-to-date COI

Output 5.2 The identity and country of origin of the applicant is correctly established

Output 5.3 The integrity of the asylum system is preserved through application of accelerated procedure to a well-defined caseload

Outcome 6 An inter-linked resettlement process

Output 6.1 PMM resettlement referral mechanism improved

Output 6.2 PMM acquired knowledge and information on EU+ countries' policy and practice relating to resettled refugees

High-level Outcome III

Contributing to an effective reception system

Outcome 7 A reception process that meets the applicants' needs

Output 7.1 NL-TR exchange of best practices: Applicant needs are matched against employment opportunities and government capacities in the referral of applicants to a province

Output 7.2 Applicants for international protection with special needs are identified and referred to services in a timely manner
