The ‘Who is Who’ project

‘Who is Who’ is a mapping project of various stakeholders and their roles in asylum and reception systems at the European, national and local levels. The key actors and their roles are presented as defined in national policies and legislation and implemented in practice. The different competences and interlinks between actors are also outlined.

The information is available online on the Who is Who platform:

<https://whoiswho.euaa.europa.eu/>

Methodology

The methodology applied to the EUAA’s Asylum Report is followed. Accordingly, the Information and Analysis Sector undertakes desk research based on publicly-available sources and EUAA reports. The information was validated by Member States, for the exception of Croatia, Estonia, France and Italy.

Overview of policymaking authorities

This report presents policymaking authorities involved in international protection in each EU+ country. It provides an overview of the ministries which are competent in the relevant policy process. Policymaking covers a range of activities, including defining priorities, planning, preparing policy proposals and legal drafts, decision-making on secondary legislation, monitoring and evaluating the results.

For each policymaking authority, the following elements are included:

- Areas of competence (e.g. asylum, reception, migration)
- Organisational level (federal, national)
- Role and competencies (a table of the relevant competencies is included in Annex 1)
- Organisational structure (internal)
- Legal basis
- Hyperlinks to official websites and social media channels. For the full list of links, see Annex 2.

Key findings

- ✓ In the majority of EU+ countries, policymaking competencies related to asylum and reception fall under the Ministry of the Interior.
- ✓ Denmark and Greece have established separate Ministries for Migration.
- ✓ In Iceland, Ireland, Netherlands, Sweden and partly in Norway and Switzerland, the relevant competencies fall under the Ministries (or Departments) of Justice.
- ✓ In 27 EU+ countries, ministries are competent for both asylum and reception procedures. In Iceland, Ireland and Spain, there are separate ministries for these areas.
- ✓ In 26 EU+ countries, the ministries which are competent for international protection procedures are also responsible for detention and return. In Cyprus, Germany, Greece and partly Ireland (detention), the responsibility is shared with other ministries.

Federal Ministry of the Interior
 Bundesministerium für Inneres (BMI)

ROLE AND COMPETENCIES

The Federal Ministry of the Interior is a government body responsible for internal affairs, in particular public security, emergency management, civil registration and identification, supervision of regional and local governments, and conduct of elections.

The Federal Ministry of the Interior is the main institution responsible for migration, implementation of CEAS, return and reintegration. In this regard, the BMI designs policies, submits legislative proposals to the National Council (Nationalrat) for adoption, issues ministerial decisions on asylum, reception, return and detention, monitors their implementation and manages AMIF together with the Federal Chancellery.

The annual priorities and budget are set by the federal government in the annual state budget.

Federal Public Service Interior

Service public fédéral Intérieur | Federale Overheidsdienst Binnenlandse Zaken

ROLE AND COMPETENCIES

The Federal Public Service Interior (former Ministry of the Interior) is a government body responsible for internal affairs, in particular public security, emergency management, civil registration and identification, and the organisation of non-local elections.

Within the Federal Public Service Interior, the Immigration Office is the main institution responsible for migration, implementation of CEAS and return and readmission. In this regard, the Immigration Office assists the Minister or State Secretary for Asylum and Migration in designing policies, submitting legislative proposals to the Federal Parliament for adoption, and issuing ministerial decisions on asylum, reception, return and detention.

The annual priorities and budget are set by the federal government in the annual state budget.

ORGANISATIONAL STRUCTURE

The organisational chart is available on the website.

Asylum falls partially (administrative aspects of asylum requests) under the Immigration Office (DG Office des étrangers/Dienst Vreemdelingenzaken). Requests for asylum are examined and decided at first instance by the Office of the Commissioner General for Refugees and Stateless Persons (CGVS), an independent authority. Fedasil is the reception agency involved in policymaking on relevant topics. The management of AMIF falls under the dedicated 'funds unit' of Federal Public Service Interior.
